

UNMAS

National Explosive Contamination Survey

UNMAS Afghanistan launched the national explosive contamination survey - which is implemented by quick response teams to enable immediate explosive ordnance disposal - in the beginning of 2022, given the new access opportunities.

Photo: QRT locations as of July 2022

Achievements as of 31 July 2022:

2,806

Villages surveyed

162

Hazard areas canceled

287

New hazard areas identified

Over

726

Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) tasks completed

3,129

EORE sessions delivered to residents of surveyed areas

